Pau ka Hana

Is just soap with a Hawaiian name. But it is a mighty good article. It has more suds, really the most important item of soap manufacture, than any soap brought here. If you have any loyalty in your composition and believe in boosting home productions, all things being equal, decide to use PAU KA HANA in your home for washing clothes or wood.

B.P.O.E. OFFICERS NAMED FOR YEAR

PORTLAND, Ore., July 10. — Past Grand Exalted Ruler Robert W. Brown of Louisville will succeed himself as chief justice of the grand forum for the coming year, and the position on the board made vacant by the death of John F. Donovan of Milwaukee, Wis., will be taken by Edward W. Richter of New Orleans, and present chairman of the judiciary committee. These appointments have been made by Grand Exalted Ruler Sullivan and confirmed by the grand lodge.

The herculean task of the judiciary committee, which has been engaged for the past week wading through more than 200 amendments, resolutions, suggestions and communications relating to modifications or revision of the constitution of the order has been completed, and the grand lodge this morning listened to the recommendations of the committee as to what changes its members deem advisable.

Results of Election.
By remaining in session the better part of the day yesterday, instead of going out on the automobile trip planned for them, the grand lodge succeeded in cleaning up the election of officers part of their week's program at the one sitting. The results, in addition to the choice of T. B. Mills for grand exalted ruler, Dr. Charles H. Ward for grand esteemed loyal knight and Edward Leach for grand treasurer, were as follows:

Grand esteemed leading knight—Jas. L. King of Topeka, Kan.

Grand esteemed lecturing knight—Lloyd R. Maxwell, Marshalltown, Ia.

Grand secretary—Fred C. Robinson, Dubuque, Ia.

Grand trustee—John J. Faulkner, East St. Louis.

Grand inner guard—John Lee Clarke, Albuquerque, N. M.

Grand tiler—Patrick H. Shields, Clarksburg, Va.

Rochester was selected as the meeting place for next year by unanimous vote. Cincinnati had everybody scared when its delegation passed the word around that it was out for the 1913 reunion, and when Past Grand Exalted Ruler Galvin mentioned "fourteen" instead of "thirteen" in his speech it took the crowd off its feet. The way things now stack up, it will be Cincinnati, Louisville and Atlanta, three Southern cities, in the scrap for 1914, and two Pacific Coast cities, Seattle and San Francisco, for the following year.

Robinson Re-elected.
Fred C. Robinson was re-elected grand secretary for the ninth time by a vote of 736 to 200 for Dave McCarron, of Port Huron.

Faulkner won out for grand trustee against Jerome J. Day of Idaho by 880 to 66.

Clarke defeated L. P. Leveroni, the present grand inner guard, by 662 to 228.

In the scramble for grand esteemed lecturing knight, Lloyd R. Maxwell of Marshalltown, Ia., bested E. M. Dickerman of Tucson, Ariz., by 489 to 412.

James L. King of Topeka, Kan., was elected grand esteemed leading knight over Judge George L. Addington of Albany, N. Y.

While the contests in some cases had been waged with extreme vigor, the whole campaign was without feeling or bitterness. It was a case of "work, and may the best man win."

In each case the defeated candidates moved to make the elections unanimous as soon as the results were announced.

MORGAN PARTNER TO BE AMBASSADOR TO ENGLAND?

"If Taft Is Re-elected" It Is Said That E. T. Stotes-

bury Is Slated

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Private advice from London say that Edward

T. Stotesbury, the Philadelphia partner of J. P. Morgan, will represent the United States at the Court of St. James' if President Taft is re-elected.

A London newspaper printed last Sunday a report that Whitelaw Reid, who has been Ambassador for several years, desires to come home.

Society here and at Washington believe the reports. Many assert that Mrs. Stotesbury—who before her marriage to Mr. Stotesbury last January was the widow of Oliver Eaton Cromwell of New York, and who was presented at the English court last month or her marriage—has been a familiar figure in diplomatic circles and is anxious to put in a season abroad, the post at Great Britain preferred.

The only persons here who doubt that Mr. Stotesbury will receive the appointment if Taft wins are politicians, who profess to know that George H. Earle, another Philadelphia financier has been provisionally offered a post in the new Cabinet.

LUNATIC GETS INTO PALACE

LONDON, July 6.—A lunatic managed to evade the sentries and police guards and broke into Marlborough House yesterday.

He was found by a servant in an equestrian bed, and was removed in custody before the return of Queen Alexandra.

The intruder was identified as William Woodley, who escaped from Norwich Asylum about twelve months ago. He was conveyed to the Westminster Union Infirmary, and will be taken back to the asylum.

He scaled the wall from the park and climbed down the terrace from which the young princes watch the possessions passing St. James' Palace.

After he had thus gained admission to the grounds that surround Marlborough House he smashed a window and climbed in. When the alarm was first raised it was thought that a burglar had entered, but none of the valuable art treasures in the royal apartment had been touched.

SPORTS

TOD SLOAN

suggestion that English jockeys lack nerve is absurd.

"Conditions have changed," he said, "since Sloan was riding here. I believe, if he were to ride in a big race now he would be surprised to find how we jockeys are hemmed in by restrictions which are so severe that there is practically no chance of showing individuality or adroit horsemanship."

"The stewards have increased their regulations to such an extent within the last few years that we have to ride like ladies in the Row instead of jockeys on a racecourse."

"It is the effect of all these restrictions, which deceived Tod Sloan into thinking we look initiative."

"The jockey is even expected to keep the place he drew at the start now, so that the outside man on a circular course has to gallop placidly through the race on the outside from start to finish or run the risk of getting into trouble on a charge of 'boring.'"

"Although it is perfectly right to be extremely strict, yet the regulations and rules have become altogether too much of a good thing and are absolutely spoiling English riding."

"The French jockeys can still ride a fighting race and show his skill as a horseman, which we are now almost barred from doing."

MYRTLES HAVE

ing out for regular practice, and available for the several crews:

Seniors—Lyle, Bechert, McDougall, O'Brien, Williams, Chillingworth, Center (Dad), Davis, Dickson.

Junior—Auerbach, Bustard, Smith, McVeigh, Rosa, Bailey (Harry), Sullivan, Myhr, Center (Mike), Ladd, Zeigler.

Freshmen—Johnson, Roller, Melanphy, Porter Gilliland, Vierre, Guard, Shaw, Hart, Searle (John), Wisdom, Bailey (Fred), Willing, Cramberg, Ashley, Lyons, Podmore, Oss, Searle (Ed), Hutchins, Jopson.

Myrtle Notes.

The Myrtles purchased a piano a short time ago, as it is the intention of the club to have many pleasant evenings. The social side of the club is going to be a "big thing" in the future.

Rowing trunks are expected from the Coast on Monday, with the club emblem on them.

A rowing machine has been rigged up for the benefit of those who get kinks in their backs. It is named the "Busterbutt," and there are a number of unfortunates who will verify to the name being appropriate.

Capt. Bechert says that a Juvenile crew will be in shape on Regatta Day and any "six kids" who have a boat can come along and get in the race.

DAVIS CUP MATCHES ARE VERY INDEFINITE

None of the three challenging nations—England, France and America—has got beyond the discussion stage in the matter of obtaining a team to go to Australia after the Davis cup.

In this country the difficulty of getting together a team to take the long journey to the antipodes has always been great, and this year is no exception.

Of the three members of last year's team—Larned, Wright and McLoughlin—none is more than a possibility careful to avoid committing themselves for the 1912 team. All three men are selves, and one, McLoughlin, has not hesitated to say that there is very little prospect of his being able to make the trip. Larned and Wright are equally unlikely to do so.

"EITHER WIFE SUITS

DURING HIS TRIAL

Alleged Bigamist Willing to Have No. 1 or No. 2; but He Goes to Jail

SAN DIEGO, June 24.—Like the mariner who is content with any port in a storm is Walter E. Carroll, who was held to answer to the superior court on a charge of bigamy. During the course of his preliminary examination, held yesterday before Justice Solon Byran, at which Minnie Carroll and Pearl Carroll, nee Smith, his first and second wives, were present, Carroll made the astounding statement that he was willing to accept either as a helpmeet.

"I have no choice," said the prisoner; "any old wife will do. All I want is a wife."

No animosity was exhibited by either wife No. 1 or No. 2 against the other and during the examination the rivals frequently held friendly conversation. Both testified concerning their marriage with Carroll. Rev. G. H. Hillerman, who performed the second marriage, was also a witness.

Carroll was arrested several weeks ago on complaint of wife No. 1, when she learned that since Carroll had left her he had married Pearl Smith without the formality of getting a divorce. In default of $1500 bail Carroll was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

PLAY FOR TENNIS

available for the early rounds, but the large number of tennis enthusiasts who will watch the tournament have to be considered in the later rounds, and can not be expected to do a marathon in the hunt for matches.

There is more class in the present tournament than in any former one held for the Hawaiian championship.

Besides the present champion, A. L. Castle, who will have to play through the tournament under the new rules, there is Allan Lowrey, captain-elect of the Harvard tennis team, Atherton Richards, who has also made good on Eastern courts, George Stephenson, a Philadelphia racket expert, and all the local tennis lights of both civilian and service life.

As the singles progress, the date for closing the doubles entry list will be fixed. The same applies to the ladies' singles and doubles. For the first time in several years there last two events will amount to something more than mere form.

Drawings for the singles were scheduled for noon today, the list appearing in another column.

Following are the entries up to 10 o'clock this morning:

C. G. Bockus, A. L. Castle, W. H. Hoogs, Jr., H. M. von Holt, P. D. Collins, L. Withington, Captain Carey, Lieutenant Fales, Atherton Richards, Lieutenant Pratt, Lieutenant Vaughan, L. M. Judd, A. J. Lowrey, George Stephenson, C. Littlejohn, J. T. Guard, John Waterhouse, W. A. Greenwell, C. Hoogs.

THINKS ED. WALSH WILL LAST LONGER

Jimmy Callahan, manager of the Chicago Americans, thinks that Eddie Walsh will break Cy Young's record as a baseball twirler. Callahan insists that Walsh will be as great a pitcher in ten years' time as he is today and that in point of games won will go above the mark set by the veteran who recently retired.

"Walsh has a perfect pitching motion. He doesn't try to work the batter by throwing waste balls. His disposition is of the best. His habits couldn't be improved upon. There isn't anything too good for me to say about Walsh," says Callahan.

"He is the best pitcher in baseball. There isn't any question in my mind as to that. He has the ability. He has the temperament. What more could a manager ask? A manager does not have to tell Walsh to do anything."

LEACH CROSS PANNED
FOR FOUL FIGHTING

One well-known New York critic takes a wallop at the foul methods that Leach Cross uses in all his fights, and calls on the referees to see to it that the rules which are constantly violated by Cross call for his disqualification. It is strange how some fighters can get away with the rough stuff, while another battler, who does not commit half so many breaches of the rules, is sent from the ring by the referee. If Cross committed one-half the foul things in his battle with Knockout Brown that he is being accused of he should be taught a lesson the next time he enters the ring and disqualified the first time he transgresses, no matter how slight the offense. The good of the game calls for this sort of drastic action.

POLO TOURNAMENTS
SOON AT NARRAGANSETT

The senior and junior championship of the American Polo Association will be held at the Point Judith Polo Club, Narragansett Pier, beginning July 22. Both the senior and junior championships will be played from scratch, but no team may play in the latter, whose aggregate handicap does not exceed twenty-goals. No players with a higher handicap than five goals can compete in the junior championship. Consequently some clubs have filed a list of eight or ten players without specifying which championship the men are to play in, but in this case the handicap will bar such top-notchers as the international cup winners from the junior championships.

IF SENATORS WIN FLAG
THEY GET TEN THOUSAND

A purse of $10,000 has been offered to Manager Griffith and the players if the Nationals win the American pennant this year. While it is almost beyond reason to expect such a turn, many prominent business men have started the subscription, naming $10,000 as the final price.

When the team arrived home, after the great spurt of sixteen consecutive victories, a committee called upon Manager Griffith and told him of the prize for the boys, and urged him to continue the great work.

One of the happiest members of the team is Barney Peltz, who was secured from the Browns. Peltz says that he is far from being ready to step aside, and hopes to help the Nationals in the dash for the pennant. Peltz will be made one of the regular pitchers with Johnson, Groom and Hughes.
